President's Corner

Coming Events

Erv Hietbrink

Our next fund raising event, the Concert on the Green, is about a month away and shortly we'll be hearing from Gary Hughes and his team about what each of us can do to help make it a success. The entertainers this year will be the Skyelite Jazz Band, from the Savannah Arts Academy and I'm sure our friends and neighbors will enjoy their performance.

On the subject of fund raising, you all recognize that our business sponsors contribute significantly to the success of our overall effort. We want to encourage all members shop at these businesses when in need of the goods and services that these folk offer. To help you remember who they are, Emerson Ham is preparing posters that will be prominently displayed at our meetings in the near future.

Before long, Keith Glenn will be convening our Nominating Committee to identify candidates for club board and officer positions and prepare us for elections that will occur in May. I'm sure we'll be hearing more from him as he forms the committee and charts its work. If you personally would like to become involved as a nominee or have someone in mind that you'd like to have considered as a candidate, don't hesitate to suggest names to Keith. The results of our election need to be communicated to the Georgia District no later than June 1.

Greenbriar Children's Center

By Melissa Emery

Greenbriar Children's Center was founded in 1949 as the first orphanage for black children in this community. Prior to that time, black orphans were sent to penal farms to live with criminals.

These days, Greenbriar provides the final "safety net" for children who need shelter, protection from abusive or negligent parents, and a caring environment for those to whom so little love is available.

GCC offers 5 types of service to disadvantaged, abused, and neglected children in Chatham County:

- A long-term residential program for boys and girls ages 10 to 18. This program provides long-term, supportive care for children who cannot remain in their homes or who cannot adjust to family foster care. Many of these children have been abused, neglected or abandoned.
- A residential program for older teens and young adults learning to live on their own. "Transitional Living" serves youth 16 – 21 who are without supportive families or foster care. "Supportive Living" serves homeless youth ages 17 – 21, including teen mothers who have one child under the age of 5. These are the only such programs in Southeast Georgia.
- An Emergency Shelter for children from newborns through age 17. This facility is available 24/7 and 365 days per year for children in need of immediate shelter and/or protection. Children are often dropped off at the Emergency Shelter by family members who say they cannot cope with the children, or children are placed there by the Department of Family tors will be addressing the subject of charitable donations for 2008. This effort will involve all club officers and board members but be spearheaded by Bill Wright, our VP of Service. At our June meeting we will decide how much, in total, we have to distribute. This will be based upon the final results of our fund raising efforts and the earnings from our Foundation accounts. It will also be influenced by our desire to meet our "bold and motivating" club goal of contributing $1,000,000 by September 30, when we complete our 20th year. In July we will determine which agencies will receive the funds and how much. That will be based upon Bill's recommendation after he's had an opportunity to look at how our funds have been used in the past by the 20+ agencies who have been regular recipients of our donations. In addition, he will be looking at newly identified youth related community programs that might enable our funds to achieve even greater impact on young lives in the future. Knowing that this effort is underway I would encourage all members who have invested considerable personal time at a specific agency, and have detailed information on the youth related benefits provided there, to engage with Bill as he formulates his recommendations and prepares us for these important decisions.

Special thanks to Steve Downing, program chairman for March; to Jim Waterman, our music maestro; to Curt Shambaugh, our 50/50 maven and good humor man; and to Allen Berger and Gary Board for meeting setup. All of your efforts were appreciated!

Directors Meeting

Debbie Kittrell, our Division 22 Lt. Governor, attended the Club's Board Meeting on March 10th. She announced the Division's Leadership Award was given to our President, Erv Hietbrink at the recent Division Rally at Vidalia. She also said the District (state) will conduct a District "Day Of Service," to make the achievements of Kiwanis more visible. All Clubs are urged to participate.

Mrs. Aiken, Pancake Chair, said the net income of the Breakfast was $1400 over plan, and the patrons seemed to enjoy themselves. Good job, Chris.

Mrs. Emery reviewed some interesting plans for Celebrating the 20th anniversary of the Club this coming September. More about that later.

Mr. Hietbrink again stressed the membership goals, and thanked Bill Wright for agreeing to host the prospective new members Cocktail party at his home.

Welcome New Member

Joyce C. Parker joined our Club this month, sponsored by Ralph Schilly, who has helped three new members join this year. Mrs. Parker moved here from Diamondhead, Mississippi, a victim of the Katrina Hurricane. Joyce attended Louisiana State University, and lives at 103 Saltwater Way. She has already helped at the Pancake Breakfast last month.

Bob Longueira (Robert M.) was asked to join by the Club's membership Chair, Tom Rood. Bob studied at the University of Hawaii, and at American University, and worked in the Telecom industry, moving here from Flemington, New Jersey. Here, Bob and his wife, Rosemary, live at 22 Long Island Road. We know he plays golf well.

The Club is happy to welcome back, a former member, Randle Mitchell. Randy and his wife, Kay, live at 4 Springpine Lane, following residence in Cape Cod, Massachusetts.

He earned a Bachelor of Economics at the University of Pennsylvania and MBA at the Wharton School. Randy was involved in

Suggestions for Speakers

Who do you know that would be a good speaker for a Kiwanis meeting? Or maybe you don't know them, but would still like to hear them speak at one of our meetings.

Please give 2007-2008 Speaker Chairman Tom Sharp a call (598-5422), or send him an e-mail (tmsharp@bellsouth.net).

Your suggestions will be welcome.

CAGREENBRIAR (from p. 1) and Child Services.

- Two pre-school programs, Windy's Pre-school and W.W. Law Learning Center.

- The Family Preservation Program – an in-home counseling service to help families deal with crises and family problems. Licensed social workers, several of which have masters degrees, provide counseling and referral services for families suffering from poor parenting skills.

Recent changes in the law and reductions in funding by DFACS have resulted in hard times for Greenbriar. Georgia has taken the position that group homes, such as Greenbriar, should be the destination of last resort. The state tried to place children either with relatives or in foster families rather than sending them to Greenbriar.

DFACS is the only state agency that reimburses Greenbriar for the residential programs (Emergency Shelter, Residential and transitional programs.) Due to changes in the rates being paid by DFACS, the total amount being received by GCC was reduced from $1.8 million in 2006 to $1.1 million in 2007.

The average amount received per child has been decreased from $120 to $101. This is causing GCC to run at a loss, despite significant efforts at private fundraising and effective cost-cutting to offset these reductions.

In addition to these decreases, amounts received from DFCS Homestead, DFCS Wrap Around, and DFCS Assessments programs have also been decreased. These programs provide the primary funding for pre-K programs run by GCC. Greenbriar does have the opportunity, however, to expand their services through the Family Preservation program, allowing them to provide more wrap-around services to families in the community.

Security issues for many of the children who come go Greenbriar make it impossible to use their names or photos. Face to face, however, alumni will tell you what a wonderful influence Greenbriar was in their lives. The loving, caring staff insists that these children do well in school and stay out of trouble. The girls' and boys' cottages have kitchens where the children help with meal preparation, and their sleeping rooms must be neat and tidy at all times. They learn to do everyday chores and gain life skills that their parents couldn't offer them.

Shardae Boynton is one example of a successful alumna of Greenbriar. Shardae was in residential care at Greenbriar for one year and then successfully transitioned to Greenbriar's Independent Living program. Shardae has now completed coursework at Savannah Technical College to become a certified Medical Transcriptionist and is currently enrolled at Savannah Technical College to receive her Associate's Degree in Administrative Office Technology.

Greenbriar, as the final resource for the lost and neglected children in our community, needs the help of Kiwanis, private individuals and companies in order to continue these vital services.

Concert on the Green

Our last fund raising effort of the season will be The Concert on the Green scheduled for Sunday May 4th with a social hour from 5 to 6 p.m., immediately followed by the concert. A rain date is scheduled for Monday May 5th.

This year we will have a change of pace in our music selection. Performing for us will be the Skyelite Jazz Band from the Savannah Arts Academy directed by Michael Hutchinson. The band, formerly known as the Blue Light Jazz Band, was formed in 1992 and their performances have taken them to London and China with scheduled appearance in Australia later this year.

The cost of the event remains at $15.00 or $17.50 at the door and children under 8 will be free. A patron ticket is $100.00 for two people. For those who are Kiwanis partners, you may convert your two tickets to a Patron level for an additional $70.00.

The patron ticket sales are a most important element in our efforts to raise funds for our charities. What a convenient and comfortable way to attend a concert with family and friends. Free from preparing food and drinks and lugging them in coolers along with your chairs. Simply bring your appetites and enjoy a superb variety of hot and cold foods along with a selection of wine, beer, soft drinks, and water in a relaxed preferential seating area. It will also provide an opportunity for us to mingle with and thank our sponsors for their continuing support.

As one might expect, there will be a need for volunteers to ensure a successful and enjoyable concert and we encourage your full support in requests for assistance.
