President's Message

November 2013

Writing this first letter to our membership has been a bit intimidating, knowing that Dan wrote such energetic and interesting letters month after month last year! He has left me very large shoes to try to fill. Dan's year as President was successful in many ways: we raised more money, we added more new members, and we had more fun at our meetings. He set the bar high and then leaped right over it. Thank you, Dan for all of your excellent leadership and hard work.

Our club handed out $82,300 in grants at our October 3 meeting to agencies where a real difference is being made in kids' lives every day. I encourage you all to visit an agency this year that you haven't yet seen in action. It will warm your heart and cause you to rededicate yourself to our mission of helping local kids who are in need or at risk.

The board and I have agreed on a goal of 105% this year—5% more financial giving, 5% more members, and 5% more hours given in volunteering at our agencies or in other ways to help kids. 5% doesn't sound like much until you look at how well we did last year and realize that we are aiming to do even more and even better. For many years, the toughest part of measuring our success has been keeping track of our volunteer hours. Our club liaisons with agencies are responsible for keeping track of Kiwanians' hours spent at that agency, so be sure to report your hours to your liaison. Names of the liaisons are printed at the end of every Kiwanigram.

We are looking forward to a wonderful Chili Cook-off on Saturday! Be sure to sell your tickets! This is our first big event of this fiscal year, and every dollar raised goes to kids in need. It is always a fun day, and this year's committee has arranged for even more great activities, new chili sources, and lots of great raffle prizes. See you there!

- Melissa

Our Chili Cook-off is Saturday, November 2!

Eighteen of Savannah's finest restaurants are all set to serve up the best and, in some cases, the hottest chili in Savannah. Circle K volunteers will also be on hand to help with face painting and a corn hole game they made just for our event. Critz, Savannah Toyota, and Volvo of Savannah will have autos on display, and our raffle has wonderful donated prizes that are sure to delight!

All you need to do now is keep selling those tickets, sign up as a volunteer, bring your family, bring your friends and neighbors! Remember, everything we do is for the kids of Savannah!

Corporate Sponsors

Corporate sponsors play an important role in our fundraising efforts and contributed nearly $24,000 to support Savannah's at-risk kids during fiscal year 2012-2013.

New Silver Sponsor and 2013-2014 Renewals

So far in 2013-2014, we have added one new silver sponsor, Armstrong Atlantic State University (see related story). We have sent 14 renewal notices, including 3 letters to past sponsors, inviting them to restart their sponsorship relationship with us; and the renewal checks are coming in. We've also launched our newest sponsor benefit—providing complimentary advertisements in our Kiwanigram.

Special thanks to Jan Wright, who is assisting me with the marketing and billing for the corporate sponsor program. Jan basically does everything but get the sponsors and deposit the checks, although she did bring in Zipperer Land Management as a bronze sponsor last April.

New Owners for Volvo of Savannah

Mike Turner and Chris Elliot are Volvo of Savannah's new owners and general managers. They are looking forward to continuing their silver sponsorship with our club and will not only show their cars at the Chili Cook-Off, but will also participate as one of our vendors. Please drop by their booth and plan to stop in the dealership and thank them for their support.

Club Member-Sponsors

Our members are our best source of corporate sponsors. Here are the latest statistics on sponsorships by companies for which our members are owners, equity partners, or senior officers:

- Jeff Heeder—SunTrust Bank—Diamond
- Emerson Ham/Kelly Bouchillon—Merrill Lynch Wealth Management—Diamond
- Brad Lucas—Lucas & Associates, CPAs, P.C.—Diamond
- Tom Sayers—Bart, Meyer & Company—Gold
- Julie Gerbsch—Armstrong Atlantic State University—Silver
- Greg Stinson—Comfort Keepers—Silver
- Chris Butler—Bernard Williams Insurance—Bronze
- Chris Britton—CertaPro Painters—Bronze

These sponsorships provided over half of our total sponsor revenues last year and their confirmed intention to renew again this year gets us off to a great start for 2013-2014.

Please be sure to thank all of our corporate sponsors when you have the opportunity. Please call or email me with any potential corporate sponsor contact information, and I will follow up for you or with you.

Armstrong

Newest Silver Sponsor

- Special to the Kiwanigram from Julie Gerbsch

Atlantic State University is our newest club sponsor. With a contribution of $1,500 this year, Armstrong is a silver level sponsor and our club's only sponsor representing higher education institutions.

Skidaway Kiwanian Julie Gerbsch is Armstrong's Assistant Vice President of Development, overseeing alumni relations and fundraising operations. She also serves as faculty advisor to the new Circle K chapter on campus, a role that she hopes will create greater partnering and mentoring opportunities between the college-age Kiwanians and the "older and wiser" members of our club.

"The Circle K chapter has already followed in the footsteps of Skidaway Kiwanis by adopting one of our favorite charities—Junior Achievement—with nine members scheduled to teach JA classes this month at White Bluff Elementary school," said Gerbsch, who has even arranged for Circle K Chapter President Rebekah Robinson and two other officers to sit with Armstrong administrators at the upcoming annual JA Business Hall of Fame Gala. "Our chapter leaders will interact with business and community leaders throughout the Savannah area, enjoy a black-tie dinner experience, and be recognized for their own JA volunteer efforts. It'll be fun!" said Gerbsch.

Gerbsch was able to make the case for Armstrong sponsorship support in equal part because of the Circle K Chapter's emergence on campus and the well-known and respected charitable work of Skidaway Kiwanians.

Armstrong was founded by community leaders in the height of the depression (1935) as Armstrong Junior College, a two-year private school located off Forsyth Park in downtown Savannah. Today, as a public university and part of the University System of Georgia, Armstrong enrolls over 6,700 undergrad and nearly 1,000 graduate students and offers more than 100 academic programs. Skidaway Kiwanis members may be interested in the 62-plus program at Armstrong. Adults 62 years or older who have been residents of Georgia for at least one year may attend college classes at no-tuition cost on a space-available basis. Call 912-344-2935 for more information.

Interfaith Hospitality Network Open House Tours

- Special to the Kiwanigram from Mark Forrsell

Our Kiwanis Club of Skidaway supports the Interfaith Hospitality Network (IHN), both financially and with our donations of personal time. IHN provides food, shelter, and counseling for qualified homeless families with children. The families stay overnight in churches, one week at a time, where they receive dinner, breakfast, and a packed lunch. The IHN van picks up the families from church and delivers them to a day center and school age children to their schools in Savannah. At the day center, the parents work on finding housing, getting a job (if needed), attending to laundry, child care, showering, and receiving counseling. The van returns the families from the day center to the church for dinner and their overnight stay.

IHN is holding open houses through to acquaint anyone interested with details of how the program functions and to provide a tour of the new day center, which opened in 2007. All of Kiwanis members are invited to attend one of these open house events, which will last about an hour. The dates and times for the next open houses are as follows:

| DATE | TIME |
|-------------------|----------|
| November 14, 2013 | 12:30 PM |
| December 12, 2013 | 6:30 PM |
| January 9, 2014 | 7:30 AM |
| February 13, 2014 | 12:30 PM |
| March 13, 2014 | 6:30 PM |
| April 10, 2014 | 7:30 AM |
| May 8, 2014 | 12:30 PM |

Let me know (598-8137, rmforrsell@comcast.net) if you are interested. I would be happy to give you a ride to and from the day center for the open house. Total time for tour and travel will be about two hours.

Kiwanis Golfers Prevail in Tight Match

- Special to the Kiwanigram from
Gary Hughes

Golfers from Skidaway's Kiwanis and Rotary clubs faced off Thursday, October 17, with a 1:30 p.m. shotgun start at Marshwood Club, in the sixth annual Ryder Cup golf match. Our golfers succeeded in winning the cup back for our club, with 16.5 points of the 32 points available to Rotary's 15.5.

Team highlights include:

- Tom Rood/James Garrison defeated two-time scholastic All-American golfer and former Oakmont golf pro Eddie Ambrose and his partner 2.5 to 1.5
- Bruce Schneidewind/Chris Butler and Tom Morrisett/Phil van Ess both defeated their opponents 3 to 1
- Jack Hart—who was down 3 with 3 holes to go—won all 3 holes, chipping in on 18 to secure the cup

In keeping with tradition, Rotary Club president Jon Peterson will bring the cup to a future meeting to present it to Melissa.

This victory brings the score to a 3-3 match tie, so we look forward to defending the cup next year!
