

KIWANIGRAM

Keith Glenn takes over as President

It is an honor and privilege to serve as the President of our club for the next year. As always we have challenges, but with your support we will move the club forward. I see two basic objectives: first we need to continue our support of the kids with our time and $$$. Second, we must have a strong and vigorous club as the basis of support. Our current level of activity is sustainable, but would be easier with a larger committed membership.

I suspect most of you were like me, met a Kiwanian (in my case Al Cywin) and he invited me to a meeting. Recruiting new members is really that simple. Not everyone is interested, but you never know without asking. We have tried numerous approaches, but the winning formula is members recruiting. I challenge every member to bring at least one prospective member to a breakfast meeting. If we did that and a third of these joined we would reverse the trend of declining membership numbers. If we get a prospect to the meeting, the club does a great job of selling it self.

We are into the fund raising season. The recruitment of businesses to support our three fund raisers is underway. (By the way Emerson Ham could use additional bodies.) The Kiwanis Partners was launched in mid Sept., headed by Bill Wright. As a reminder Kiwanis Partners is the solicitation to non-Kiwanians for a donation with or without tickets to our fund raising events. And the annual Chili-cook-off will be Nov. 11th. Our fund raisers are compressed by factors beyond our control. To be successful we need the summer's travelers back on the island. Second we must fit around the holiday schedules and conflicting events such as; Moon River Classic, Landlovers Sale, Legends of Golf, Men's Invitational etc. All this limits when we can fit in the events. They do come in quick succession, but with everyone's help it will continue to be enjoyable and profitable. The winners are Savannah Kids.

BREAKING NEWS

Your humble media staff at the Kiwanis Club of Skidaway were surprised and pleased to learn that the entry of our two club publications Club Flyer, and Club Bulletin (Kiwaniogram) were entered into the Kiwanis State competition Gold Division and won first in both classes. Can you believe it. We can make these publications better only if we continue to have membership support in supplying the important information relating to club activities that our membership needs to know.

SPECIAL OLYMPICS

At the Seattle Special Olympics, nine contestants, all physically or mentally disabled, assembled at the starting line for the 100-yard dash. At the gun, they all started out, not exactly in a dash, but with a relish to run the race to the finish and win. All, that is, except one little boy who stumbled on the asphalt, tumbled over a couple of times, and began to cry. The other eight heard the boy cry. They slowed down and looked back. Then they all turned around and went back... every one of them. One girl with Down's Syndrome bent down and kissed him and said, "This will make it better." Then all nine linked arms and walked together to the finish line.

Everyone in the stadium stood. The cheering went on for several minutes. People who were there are still telling the story. Why? Because deep down we know this one thing: What matters in this life is more than winning for ourselves. What matters in this life is helping others win, even if it means slowing down and changing our course.

Steve has his own business, Arkin and Associates, and specializes in accounting and tax. His sponsor is Sam McLaughlin.

Jeffrey, "Jeff" Heeder is the guy you see at the breakfast meetings dressed in a business suit, because he's still working, at Sun Trust. Jeff attended Rochester Institute of Technology, earning a BS in Accounting. He is a certified Financial Planner, and has worked for Chase Manhattan Bank, and the U.S. Treasury in the IRS. He's a golfer. Tennis player and like to bike and walk. He and his wife, Nancy, live at 204 Pettigrew Drive. He is sponsored by Melissa Emery.

Robert "Bob" Austin Vinyard is no stranger to Kiwanis, having been a Club Officer and Lieutenant Governor in Virginia.
